A Kingdom Worker is defined as: a person who uses their God given gifts, talents, and resources to impact people in their sphere of influence.

Marks of a Kingdom Worker

They CONNECT WITH GOD

- Kingdom Workers look to Jesus as their leader and example (Hebrews 12:2) & they know God's Word guides us (Psalm 119:105), and it is useful for both teaching (others) and discipleship (self) (2 Timothy 3:16-17).
- We set our hope on the work of Jesus (Luke 23:44-46), as foretold by God since the beginning of time (Genesis 3:15)
- Kingdom Workers mimic Jesus' example of intentionally setting aside time alone with God (Luke 5:16), and the early church's example of meeting together (Acts 2:42-47)
- Am I trusting and following Jesus & how am I growing in my faith?

They CONNECT WITH OTHERS

- Kingdom Workers live in obedience to God by choosing to live in community with His people (Hebrews 10:24-25)
- Kingdom Workers seek opportunities to share their faith (Colossians 4:5-6), and are prepared for every opportunity (2 Timothy 4:2)
- Where am I investing in the Kingdom?

They CONNECT OTHERS WITH GOD

- Kingdom Workers are not focused on themselves (Philippians 4:3-11), but mimic Christ in His selflessness (Matthew 20:25-28)
- They use their God given gifts for the benefit of the Kingdom (1 Corinthians 12:12-26), and they throw off earthly divisions for unity under Christ (John 17:22-23; Colossians 3:11)
- Who am I impacting?
